Over 20 public and private stakeholders of the Textile, Clothing, Leather, and Footwear (TCLF) sectors, coordinated by their European Umbrella Associations (Euratex, CEC, COTANCE), come together under the "Skills4Smart TCLF Industries 2030" Blueprint, a strategic 4-year Erasmus+ project.

MAIN OBJECTIVES:

- Update training and curricula offer to better match industry needs;
- Upgrading the image of careers in the TCLF sectors to attract new workers, in particular young talents;
- Create a dynamic community of private and public actors across Europe committed to support skills development and employment opportunities within a common EU-wide skills strategy.

THE PROJECT IN A NUTSHELL:

- 2018: Analysis of skills gaps in 100 companies and 50 training institutes
- 2019: Design of 8 new Vocational and Educational Training Programmes (VET)
- 2020-21: Pilot and Validation of the new training courses
- 2018-2021: Develop a Sustainability Action Plan through:
 - Network of VET providers across EU
 - Engagement of regions and other stakeholders
 - Creation of a EU Fashion Virtual Campus
